

that the work done on the road from Horse Shoe Bay to Lime Point during the past summer has been destroyed by the late rains. It is said that of the sixty feet width there remains not more than enough for one person to pass along safely.

NEW SAUCELITO.—This delightful place brought into existence by the Saucelito Land and Ferry Company presents a woe-begone appearance. A portion of the embankment made at the heel of the wharf is washed away, and the solitary house which composes the town is a monument of folly to the person who thought Saucelito would be "the grand city."

FISTIC ENCOUNTER.—A party of roughs from San Francisco desecrated last Sabbath by one of their exhibitions of pugilism at the town of Saucelito. This place is becoming noted for exhibitions of that character. Who the parties were that engaged in the affair we did not learn.

A PIONEER HEARD FROM.—Moses Stoppard, who came to this State with Colonel Stevenson's Regiment and who resided in San Rafael for a long time, where he is well and favorably known by old settlers, has turned up at White Pine. Mose enlisted
