

State, the Union, Alta, Settler & Miner, and other Whig organs, but not expect us to devote our columns to propagation, nourishment or extension of any heresy or incendiary brand that Whiggery may choose to cast among the ranks of the Democracy, though "twenty-five extra copies" be ordered.

AMPHITHEATRE OR BULL PEN.—This suit brought by E. F. Gleason, et. al., against F. A. Bee, W. Wadsworth, A. Hunter, C. Batterman, C. Tureman, George Emerson and J. Dolton, who, assisted by some two hundred citizens and miners, demolished the Amphitheatre that had been erected and used for the brutal exhibition of bear and bull fights and bull and man fights, came off last week at Coloma, before the District Court, and resulted in the jury agreeing to disagree, except in the case of Dolton, who non-suited the plaintiffs, he having taken no part in the pulling down, except to look on.

The Annual Election of Trustees, Marshall etc. for Placerville, comes off to day.

Reminds us of Goose we obtained the most ever tasted,

But it wasn't there of that "huge cake with Gravelly Creek, on the thought that cake, made without either eggs, the best we ever did see. comparison with that pastry, that yesterday found its way upon ment not only supplied but packers for the article of Butter Cream made expressly for the about to start for the Lake or the western Sea commend them to each door east of the Philadelphia variety of pies, cakes and