

Chinese Lepers

San Francisco Chronicle (1869-Current File); Apr 2, 1882; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: San Francisco Chronicle
pg. 1

Chinese Lepers.

A Chinese leper was discovered yesterday morning near Phelan's building on Market street. He was sent to the Posthouse. On Friday another leper was discovered in Chinatown and sent to the same institution. Colonel Bee has also sent three Chinese lepers and three Chinamen afflicted with incurable diseases to the hospital.

County Clerk's Fees.

Following is the statement of fees received by the County Clerk during the month of March: Superior Courts, from 1 to 8 inclusive, $2412 25; Department No. 9 (Probate), $956; Department No. 10, $458; 168 marriage licenses, at $2 each, $322. Total, $4143 25. Transferred to Law Library, $481.